

IN SENATE
OF
THE UNITED STATES,

DECEMBER 5, 1817.

Agreeably to notice, Mr. Daggett asked and obtained leave to bring in the following resolution, which was read and passed to the second reading:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of State cause to be distributed, one set of state papers and public documents, printed by T. B. Wait and Sons, in pursuance of acts of Congress heretofore passed, to each of the heads of departments, and to the attorney general of the United States; one set to each Senator and Representative of the Fifteenth Congress; one set to each of the executives of the several states and territories, for the use of such state or territory; and one other set to each university and college in the United States; and the residue of the sets of state papers and documents aforesaid, shall be deposited in the Library of Congress.

IN SENATE
THE UNITED STATES

January 5, 1877

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, shall cause to be distributed, one set of state papers and public documents, printed by T. H. Wait and Sons, in pursuance of acts of Congress heretofore passed, to each of the heads of departments, and to the attorney general of the United States; one set to each Senator and Representative of the Fifteenth Congress; one set to each of the executives of the several states and territories, for the use of each state or territory; and one other set to each university and college in the United States; and the residue of the sets of state papers and documents aforesaid, shall be deposited in the Library of Congress.